⁴ Trupo Brothers: Joe Trupo, VHS Class of 1948, became Sheriff of Harrison County & retired as a U. S. Marshall. When his older brother, Louis J. Trupo, VHS Class of 1938, was serving in World War II, the Bible in his pocket prevented a bullet from hitting his heart, a story retold in Readers Digest. His picture in this uniform was on display at Victory High. - FG Layman

VICTORY LANE and MEMORY WALLS

A circular brick drive was built in front of old Victory High School to serve as a safe drop-off for Adamston school children now using the school. Engraved bricks were sold to fund the project. The dedication of Victory Lane was held on Veterans Day, November 11, 1998 on the front steps of old Victory High. The Victory Lane committee consisted of co-chairmen, Monica Ferrara and Paul Hamrick, and Victory Alumnus, Fred G. Layman. An award was presented by Adamston Elementary School principal to Fred in acknowledgement of his volunteer work and for selling the most bricks (see below). So many bricks were sold that a Memory Wall had to be added to display the bricks. - ssb
